Research and Learning with Geographic Data

Leveraging Philadelphia Focused and National Data

Please join the Urban Health Collaborative (UHC) for an interactive data application workshop for students and staff. The UHC has compiled data related to health determinants and health outcomes for the greater Philadelphia region.

This workshop is an opportunity to

1) Explore and understand these datasets, what is available, and what you can do with it
2) Generate ideas for using this data in research or student projects, and
3) Increase the use of the UHC data.

Light refreshments will be available
