Decade of Discovery: A Film Screening and Panel Discussion

Wednesday, May 11, 2016 at 5:30 p.m.

Drexel University's URBN Center Annex

3401 Filbert Street, Philadelphia PA

Shown across the country, the celebrated documentary Decade of Discovery is set at the White House and unfolds the story of a government attorney on a quest to find a better way to search White House email and a teacher who took a stand for civil justice on the electronic frontier. A distinguished panel immediately following the film will explore the topic further, discussing current headlines such as Secretary Clinton's emails and the FBI's case with Apple.
