AMERICAN CULTURE WORKSHOP SERIES

Breaking the Ice: A Discussion about American Idioms and Slang

WHEN AND WHERE?

THURSDAY

MAY 30, 2013

MACALISTER 2019

4:00PM-5:00PM

DREXEL UNIVERSITY
International Students and Scholars Services
Student Affairs

What is an idiom?

It is a group of words established by usage as having a meaning not understandable from the individual words.

For example: Break the ice, open a can of worms, and blow off steam

Come learn what these idioms mean and share your own experiences!

Presented by Gabby Mora

Assistant Director for Leadership, Involvement, and Community Development

Resident Director – Kelly Hall

Residential Living Office

REFRESHMENTS WILL BE SERVED!

International Students & Scholars Services • Room 210 Creese Student Center, 3210 Chestnut Street • Philadelphia, PA 19104 • 215-895-2502 • intlprog@drexel.edu • www.drexel.edu/isss