RE-IMAGINING STREETS AS PEDESTRIAN SPACES

CHARRETTE EVENTS APRIL 12—15 2019

The Westphal College of Media Arts & Design presents the 2019 Interdisciplinary Design Charrette led by noted Korea-based design practice studio GAON.

The Drexel 2019 Charrette proposes the closing of selected blocks to normal traffic in various parts of Philadelphia. Reconceiving the street as a truly public space presents profound design and cultural challenges.

All Drexel students are encouraged to participate in a weekend of creative brainstorming and collaborative design to re-imagine Philadelphia streets as pedestrian spaces.

Students from all majors are encouraged to participate.
