Which path to management should engineers choose?

MS Engineering Management

or the

MBA

Both degrees are earned by engineers advancing into leadership roles, but there are important differences. The correct decision for you will depend on your interests, goals, and ultimate trajectory.

Join us on May 15th at 12pm in Curtis 162 to better understand an important decision that will influence your career path.

Join Professor Rick Grandrino for an information session on May 15th at 12pm in Curtis 162 (MEM Conference Room). Professor Grandrino is a full-time faculty member for the Engineering Management and Systems Engineering Programs at Drexel. He has a wealth of career experience and insights to share, including 33 years as a Manager with Lockheed Martin.

A free pizza lunch will be provided. Seats are limited, so please RSVP to ccm49@drexel.edu to confirm your attendance.
