Longitudinal Experimental Impacts of the 'Quality Preschool for Ghana' Interventions on Classroom Quality, Teacher Professional Well-being, and Children's School Readiness: Implications for System-level Reform

Register Now

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 31, 2018
12:00 pm – 1:00 pm

The Korman Center, Room 201
3315 Market Street, Philadelphia PA 19104

Featured Speaker

Dr. Sharon Wolf, Applied Developmental Psychologst, University of Pennsylvania

Dr. Sharon Wolf and her team of researchers assessed the impacts of a teacher professional development program for public and private kindergartens in the Greater Accra Region of Ghana. She examined impacts on teacher professional well-being, classroom quality, and children's readiness during one school year. Implications for policy and practice are discussed for Ghana and for early childhood education in low- and middle-income countries.

Dr. Sharon Wolf is an applied developmental psychologist at the University of Pennsylvania who studies how children's family and educational environments shape their development, focusing on disadvantaged populations in the United States and in low-income countries.

About the Global Education Colloquium

The GEC is composed of faculty, students and community members who make global education their central focus for research and teaching, and those who incorporate global and education analysis into their areas of primary pursuit.

GEC events are held every month on the main campus of Drexel University. You are invited to bring your lunch.

Event will be webcast live through the website.
