

DREXEL UNIVERSITY

LGBTQ SPEAKER SERIES WINTER 2018

February 7: Sarah Dreier, University of Washington

LGBTQ + Rights in sub-Saharan Africa: Exploring the factors that shape and dislodge individuals from harboring anti-LGBTQ sentiments

Lunch/ lecture from 12-1:50 pm, 3320 Market St., Rm. 140

February 26: Kelly Kollman, University of Glasgow

LGBTI Politics in an Era of Globalization:

Visibility, Rights Expansion and Backlash

Lunch/ lecture from 12-1:50 pm, 3320 Market St., Rm. 240

March 7: Erin Adam, Hunter College

Queer Alliances: Paradoxes and Power in the Formation of Rights-Based Movement Coalitions

Evening lecture from 6-7:15 pm, location TBD

March 14: Alice Coffin, Fulbright and French Association of LGBT Journalists

Why French politics and France's cultural background make it difficult for LGBTs to be out and visible

Lunch/ lecture from 12-1:50 pm, 3320 Market St., Rm. 140

All are welcome. Please RSVP at drexel.edu/politics/events

Lunch will be available at the 12 pm lectures at the Kline School of Law, 3320 Market Street

