Chisholm '72: Unbought and Unbossed

Friday February 1 at 12:30pm in Law School rm. 140

Chisolm '72: Unbought and Unbossed chronicles Brooklyn Congresswoman Shirley Chisholm's 1972 campaign to become the Democratic party nominee for President. Her ground-breaking campaign offered a new vision of equality and participation for all citizens.

This event is open to Drexel University students, faculty, and staff. Lunch will be provided.

DREXEL UNIVERSITY
Thomas R. Kline
School of Law

Sponsored by: The Center for Law, Policy, & Social Action with the Black Law Students Association, DiveIN, the Women's & Gender Studies Program, the Africana Studies Program, and the Department of Politics.