
RUBY NAMDAR

The Absent Temple: A Jewish Author's reflection of an ancient Jewish symbol

MAY 23, 5:15 PM

HAGERTY LIBRARY, HARRY STERN JUDAIC STUDIES SEMINAR ROOM (ROOM 302)

Ruby Namdar is an Israeli-American author born and raised in Jerusalem. His latest novel The Ruined House (2013) won the Sapir Prize, Israel's most prestigious literary award. He currently lives in NYC with his family, and teaches Jewish literature.

Co-sponsored with Hillel at Drexel University and Judaic Studies