WE ARE ALL WELL – A PARTIAL HISTORY OF PUBLIC INFORMATION INFRASTRUCTURES AFTER DISASTERS

Megan Finn, PhD, Assistant Professor, School of Information, University of Washington

3101 MARKET STREET, ROOM 224
OCTOBER 2, 2019, 12:30-2:00PM

LUNCH PROVIDED

Dr. Finn will discuss how people produce and circulate information in earthquake publics using a comparative historical lens. Dr. Finn will analyze the institutions, policies, and technologies that shape today's post-disaster information landscape, paying close attention to not only the circulation of knowledge, but also to the production of ignorance.
