DREXEL UNIVERSITY
School of Education

DREXEL SCHOOL LEADERSHIP COUNCIL

Join us for our inaugural session of the Drexel School Leadership Council (DSLC). The purpose of DSLC is to foster in-depth conversations of various educational topics driving education today, while exploring how to transform schools to be agile in understanding the challenges and opportunities in the future. The goal is to foster collaboration between K-12 school leaders from urban, suburban, and rural districts, which will create a rich dialogue for sharing ideas, resources, and developing skills to navigate the complexities facing educational leaders today and into the future.

The agenda for April 7, 2020 includes:

⇒ 8:30 am	Light breakfast
⇒ 9:00 am	A.I. and Medical Technology in Education—Dr. Jeffrey Popyack and Dr. David Breen (College of Computing and Informatics)
⇒ 9:45 am	Optimizing Technology in K-12 Education to Support Universal Design for Learning (UDL) and Student Success— Dr. Kristen Betts, SOE
⇒ 10:15 am	Creativity & Innovation in Education— Dr. Larry Keiser, SOE
⇒ 11:15 am	Preparing School Leaders in Creating the Schools of Tomorrow—Dr. John Gould & Dr. Michael Kozak, SOE
⇒ 12:00 pm	Lunch

Where	Skyview Conference Room, 6th Floor 3250 Chestnut St. , Macalister Hall Philadelphia, PA 19104
When:	April 7, 2020 8:30 am—12:30 pm
Register:	https://bit.ly/32opGfA
Cost:	FREE