DESIGN DIALOGUES

Cultural Change

Indiviual Influence

Artful Aspiration

BRADFORD C. GRANT

Grant is a professor in the architecture department at Howard University who is using his skills as a sketch artist to capture history in the making. His artwork depicts the protests and movements occuring in the Washingtion D.C. area. Come hear him discuss his fellowship as Artist in Residence at the National Portrait Gallery and the role architecture and Black designers have on social justice.

THURSDAY, OCT. 22, 2020
6-7 PM

Meeting ID: 962 2374 3727

Register below:
https://drexel.zoom.us/meeting/register/tJIvdeqvqjgtGNNCb7PK128dJIOh_Wx-HRG-

Presented by DU BASS