

December Global Health Brown Bag Talk

Interested in exploring global health work? Want to learn more about faculty and student projects in global health? Join the Global Health Brown Bag Talks!

Claire Slesinski, MSPH

Senior Program Manager, SALURBAL

“The Urban Health in Latin America (SALURBAL) Project: Dornsife SPH’s largest global health research collaboration”

Jamile Tellez Liberman, DrPH(c)

DrPH candidate, Community Health and Prevention

“It Felt Like I Hit Rock Bottom”: A Qualitative Exploration of the Mental Health Impacts of Immigration Enforcement and Discrimination on U.S.-citizen, Mexican Children”

7 December 2021, 12pm – 1pm

In-person: Nesbitt 719

Zoom (RSVP: <https://bit.ly/2ZzCpz7>)

Moderated by Nina Sun, Deputy Director, Global Health and Assistant Clinical Professor

Questions? Interested in giving the next talk? Contact Prof. Sun (nys28@drexel.edu)

Office of Global Health
Drexel Dornsife School of Public Health,
Nesbitt Hall, 3215 Market St., Philadelphia, PA, 191040