

Discuss Regional and Federal Cannabis Policy with NORML Regional Organizer, Chris Goldstein

Sponsored by Drexel University's Medical Cannabis Research Center

Chris Goldstein is a regional organizer in NJ, Pa., and DE for the National Organization for the Reform of Marijuana Laws (NORML) focused on cannabis consumer rights.

Chris has helped advance cannabis reform issues. These include the passage of medical marijuana bills in New Jersey, Pennsylvania and Delaware; Philadelphia's decriminalization bill; and supporting passage of New Jersey's adult-use cannabis ballot referendum.

Chris will be speaking on the current state of cannabis policy in the region and the impact of needed changes in federal and state law.
