This January, Join us for a unique & exciting look into hands-on design thinking!

LIZ SANDERS will share
MAKETOOLS in HEALTH & DESIGN THINKING

NO DESIGN EXPERIENCE IS NECESSARY

This in-person interdisciplinary design sprint will provide you with new hands-on creative research techniques.
All participants will receive a toolkit to take home with them!

During this event, participants will be guided to innovate and examine how our health "spaces" have changed using the MAKETOOLS process. Dr. Liz Sanders, the co-author of the Convivial Toolbox, will be giving a talk on her work & a full day's design sprint with community partners, students, & faculty.

Sprint will include public discussion, prizes, & judging at the end of the day!
Lunch and Breakfast are provided.

FOR QUESTIONS: DSN35@DREXEL.EDU

Liz is a 2022 Westphal Rankin Scholar
Co-Author of the Convivial Toolbox
Faculty@ The Ohio State University School of Design
