DREXEL UNIVERSITY
Urban Health Collaborative
Dornsife School of Public Health

EVENTS AT THE UHC

May 14, 2:30 - 4:00

Treating Your Data FAIRly and with CARE: a Conversation About Data Efforts at Drexel, Philadelphia, and Beyond.

Explore local and international efforts to make data more accessible and usable, while acknowledging the complexities created by considerations of data ownership, stewardship and provenance. We will have two round tables with time for Q&A. Light appetizers will be served. Everyone is welcome!

- Theresa Dirndofer Anderson, PhD
- Ran Li, MS
- Matt Jannetti, MS
- Kari Moore, MS
- Megan Todd, PhD (Philadelphia Department of Public Health)
- Amy Carroll-Scott, PhD, MPH
- Ana Ortigoza, MD, PhD, MPH, MS (Pan American Health Organization)

WorldFAIR

Funded by the European Union

May 15, 11:00 - 12:00

Making Data Matter: Applying AI Technologies for Community Benefit with AI Ethicist Theresa Dirndorfer Anderson, PhD.

Events held in person at 3600 Market St., Room 709, and via Zoom. Use QR codes to register.