The Urgency of Poetry, A Conversation

This session will explore the critical role poetry plays in contemporary society. The event will consist of a dialogue where the poets discuss how poetry addresses pressing issues of today, such as social justice, identity, environmental crises, and cultural heritage.

Featuring
Dr. Tania Favela and Dr. Luis M. Verdejo

Hosted by: Maria de la luz Matus-Mendoza

Thursday, November 21
5:30-7:00 pm
AJ Drexel Picture Gallery
Main Building, Drexel University

Co-Sponsored by:
Global Studies and Modern Languages Department, English and Philosophy Department, the Greater Philadelphia Latin American Studies Consortium (GPLASC), the University of Pennsylvania, West Chester University, Philatinos Media, and the Mexican Cultural Center.