Navigating Menstrual Equity: Insights from the Student Creators of the MN Toolkit

Hosted by the UMN MCH Student Interest Group (MCHSIG) in collaboration with Drexel University's MCH Student Organization

A virtual conversation on menstrual equity & improving access to menstural products in schools

Why Attend?

- Learn about menstrual equity and why access matters
- Hear from two MPH students who co-designed the Minnesota Menstrual Products in Schools Toolkit (MPST): z.umn.edu/b2jm
- Engage in dialogue on improving menstrual product access
- Connect with students across universities invested in MCH
