Maternal & Child Health Journal Club

Brought to you by the Maternal & Child Health Working Group (MCHWG) at Drexel University School of Public Health.

The Maternal and Child Health Working Group (MCHWG) is excited to offer students interested in Maternal and Child Health (MCH) an opportunity to interact with MCH faculty through discussions of relevant MCH publications. Journal club facilitators will present highlights of a chosen article and comment on why the topic is important for MCH at this time. An open discussion of the article will follow.

All participants will be expected to read the article before the meeting to ensure meaningful discussion.

Please contact Dr. Renee Davis at Drexel.MCHWG.Davis@gmail.com Prior to the meeting for a copy of the article.
