DREXEL UNIVERSITY School of Public Health

Public Health
Grand Rounds Series

Optimizing the HIV Care Continuum in a Public Health Setting using HEALTH SYSTEM NAVIGATORS

HELENA KWAKWA, MD, MPH

Wednesday, February 11, 2015
4:30 – 5:30 p.m.

Drexel University
Ruth Auditorium,
Nesbitt Hall,
3215 Market Street
Philadelphia, PA 19104

Lecture is free and open to the public.

This lecture will be available through live webcast and an archived recording. For more information about Grand Rounds contact the School at 267.359.6022

This event is accredited for 1 hour of continuing education for the National Board of Public Health Examiners (NBPHE) Certification in Public Health (CPH).

view a live webcast at:
http://bit.ly/1x4r0Rf

Dr. Kwakwa is a physician specializing in HIV medicine currently serving as Director of HIV Clinical Services for the Philadelphia Health Department.

Dr. Kwakwa will discuss the HIV care continuum and the importance of linkage to care and retention in care, the development of the Health System Navigator Program, key findings to date for the Philadelphia project, and important lessons learned.

publichealth.drexel.edu