DREXEL UNIVERSITY
School of Public Health

Public Health
Grand Rounds Series

IMPROVING HEALTH IN CITIES

Challenges and Opportunities for Public Health

ANA DIEZ ROUX, MD, PhD, MPH

Wednesday, May 20, 2015
4 – 5 p.m. NEW TIME

Drexel University
Ruth Auditorium,
Nesbitt Hall,
3215 Market Street
Philadelphia, PA 19104

Lecture is free and open to the public.

This lecture will be made available through an archived recording. For more information about Grand Rounds contact the School at 267.359.6022

This event is accredited for 1 hour of continuing education for the National Board of Public Health Examiners (NBPHE) Certification in Public Health (CPH).

Dr. Diez Roux is Dean and Distinguished Professor of Epidemiology at the Drexel University School of Public Health.

Dr. Diez Roux has led research programs on health disparities and the social and physical determinants of health, the impact of neighborhood environments on health, the role of psychosocial factors in health, environmental health and urban health issues. She will discuss the public health issues and challenges facing cities both in the US and globally and the relationship between urbanization and public health.

publichealth.drexel.edu