Drexel Pilates presents:

Mat Instructor Training Summer 2015

Interested in becoming a Pilates Instructor?

Join Drexel Pilates Director Jennifer Morley and Senior Instructor Megan Quinn for our Summer Mat Intensive. This program is constructed of two intensive training weekends (June 26-28 and July 31-August 2), private sessions, practice teaching, observation, and personal assessment tests. Participants will both embody and teach the classical Pilates mat repertoire, starting from its foundations and building to the advanced and archival work.
